

WELCOME TO CHURCH OF THE ASCENSION

Eighth Sunday after Pentecost: 15 July A.D. 2018

Food Safety at the Church of the Ascension

We will soon be able to reopen the kitchen —sparkling from deep cleaning, and a revision of the piping from sink to street. It's taken a long time, and proved to be very expensive. However, we're looking forward now to a better facility, and more people properly certified in Food Handling. I would like to have at least twenty people take and pass the MD Food Handlers course. Let me tell you why.

The Health Department was not too happy with our systems on their last visit; in order that we reopen for future One Ascension Feasts and other events, we need to have several people certified as Food Handlers, as well as make a host of other safety improvements.

It was obvious from some of the unsafe practices that the inspectors observed, that we really need to be aware of ALL of the material covered in the Food Handlers' course. I agree. It is terribly easy to accidentally transmit germs while making, cooking, cooling and holding food. We all use little shortcuts that could turn a joyous gathering into a very painful memory.

Doing things carefully and well greatly reduces any potential health or safety problem. It gives us more confidence in the best ways to cook and prepare food, even at home. And having lots of people certified in best food practices makes it likelier that we will all be more careful as we work together. Finally, having lots of people in the congregation certified as safe food handlers makes staffing an impromptu event much easier. If this works well for us, there is an advanced level course for the Person -in -Charge.

Here's what you do if you would like to participate: Go to www.MDFoodHandlers.com This online site lets you take a course with multiple little videos and quizzes. To do the course in Spanish, click on the Green Espanol button in the upper right corner. At the end, you take an on-line test. If you pass, you can print a certificate. If you don't, you simply take it again, as many times as necessary. Each test covers the same material, but the 40 questions are randomly put together for each test.

The cost of the certification is normally $10, but when you go to checkout fill the PO field with "eFoodVolunteer", and click APPLY it will be $5. The certification is good for 3 years, and can be used in other settings than the Church of the Ascension. If you have any questions, please contact me at lrpedron@gmail.com.

One person on the Vestry has already taken and passed the course. She reports that it took a bit longer than an hour, and would have been quicker if she were on better terms with her computer!

Lucia Pires is from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. She is a 500-hour Pranakriya Yoga School of Healing Arts certified yoga teacher. Her training focuses on cultivating and enhancing the relationship of the student with his or her life force through yoga postures, breath work and meditation, in order to create change in awareness and help the student move towards wholeness and greater aliveness. She completed her professional training in 2015.

Yoga class has been temporarily moved to Room 6 in the main church Form July 12th through August 30th. This classroom is located on the lower level of the main building. Classes will resume in the Chapel on September 6, 2018.

Overtone Singing at Ascension!

On Friday, July 27th at 7:30pm, join Harmonic Introductions for a concert of overtone singing in the Chapel!

Harmonic Introductions is a small non profit, community vocal ensemble, dedicated to expanding the awareness, appreciation, and understanding of the art of overtone singing.

What is Overtone Singing?

Overtone singing is a technique that enables 1 vocalist to produce and, with a bit of practice, control 2 or more notes simultaneously. When multiple voices come together to sound in this medium, a surreal soundscape and relaxing, glowing atmosphere settle and swirl throughout the space!

The Fredy Diaz Martinez Fund

Friends, most of you know that our fellow parishioner and friend, Fredy, was arrested by ICE last month. Fredy's wife and three children are also active and faithful members of Ascension. They primarily worship at the Noon service, but are always participants in the One Ascension services. Their daughter Jazmin is a reader of the Psalms at that service and reads beautifully from the lectern. Fredy and his family are always there for others in need. Present to serve when Ascension needs him. Our lawns and gardens testify to his care. In my support letter to the immigration judge, I described Fredy as a man of merit and spirit.

Well, now Fredy needs us. Because of his detention, he will have massive legal bills so that he can be reunited with his family, his church and his job. At this time, his family is deprived of the much needed second income provided by Fredy to his family. Last time, we let you all know what had happened to Fredy and invited you to help Fredy and his family. We also asked you to write letters of support for Fredy to the immigration judge. Many of you have provided wonderful letters. Thank you. Many of you have already made financial donations as well. Thank you. To further support the Fredy and his family, we are formally setting up a Fredy Diaz fund. If you have not yet donated, we invite you to do so as you are able by going here: <http://ascensionmd.org/know-about-fredy-and-his-family/>.

If you would like to send him a letter of encouragement and/or support, he may receive correspondence at:

Fredy A Diaz JID 1483728
600 E. Ordnance Road
Glen Burnie, MD 21060

I'm sure he would appreciate hearing from you. Thank you in advance for your caring and support of Fredy and his family.

May God's Blessings be upon you!
Javier and Nan

Do you have Human Resource Management or Managerial experience? Do you have a keen eye for detail? Are you gifted at conflict resolution? Well if so, then the personnel Committee is looking for volunteers. If any of the above sounds interesting, Ascension could use your help. Please contact the Vestry Liaison, Rose Buck, at rose.buck2@gmail.com or at 301.325.6291 or email Lin Keene at office@ascensionmd.org.

Montgomery Hospice is a nonprofit hospice that has been serving the residents of Montgomery County for 36 years. We provide professional end-of-life care in homes, extended care facilities and at Casey House, our acute care facility. We are looking for new volunteers. Our greatest need is for volunteers to visit patients. These volunteers provide companionship for patients, respite for family members, lavender oil hand massages, music by the bedside or help with practical matters. Many provide the gift of "presence" by simply being with a patient. All volunteers go through an application
