

WELCOME TO CHURCH OF THE ASCENSION

Day of Pentecost : 20 May A.D. 2018

PASTORAL CARE AT CHURCH OF THE ASCENSION AN UPDATE FROM REV. NAN AND REV. JAVIER

Since my formal time with you as your Assistant Rector, I have always held you in my heart. When I was here six years ago, my areas of service to the church were in Childrens' Sunday School and Pastoral Care. It was such a great pleasure to live within and serve in those capacities.

In a way, I have been doing the same thing in my recent service: presiding at the Family service and supporting the pastoral visitors. For the time being and the near future, my focus will be assisting Javier with the new schedule of services, supporting the pastoral visitors and visiting parishioners who are in need of seeing a priest.

We have a marvelous pastoral visitors' program with well trained caregivers. Our caregivers for the most part are well known to you: Meredith Horan, Jean Cohn, Barbara Mansfield, Pamela Irons-Forth, Katie Beth Miksa . As you all know, this team not only has depth and breadth as caregivers at Ascension, but we have several who are professional caregivers. We are blessed to have available to us their kind hearts and their professional expertise. I should now up date you on the conversations we have been having about how the Pastoral Visitor Program is shaping in order to be able to serve the community more broadly and to have you all know more about how pastoral care will be delivered.

Our group has had several meetings in the last four months. For the most part, the congregation may not notice many changes in the pastoral visitor program. We will, however, work to make it easier for you to request assistance from us. Our revisions are more systematic than programmatic. Katie Beth is updating the online form, so that you may request a visit or home or hospital Eucharist. The online request forms will be reviewed first by Fr. Javier, so that he is well informed about the congregation's care needs. Then, that online information will be shared with me so that either Javier, I or a pastoral visitor can call or visit the parishioner in need. Javier and I have also agreed that we will share information with each other on Mondays so that we can respond more efficiently. Javier and I intend to make pastoral calls every week to those we have heard who are ill or are in any form of distress. We invite you to speak with us on Sunday or write us an email or call us, so that we may support you and pray with you.

One of the powerful characteristics of the good people of Ascension is the way we care for each other. Recently, I have seen parishioners independently rally to care for those who are in need of support. This upwelling of spirit is a sign of the Spirit building the beloved community and I pray that this responsive to one another in times of need goes from strength to strength. We are all ministers of Christ. With that, please know that neither Javier, nor I nor the pastoral visitors can replace that marvelous love in action among you, but we will always be there when we are needed and, and, primarily, know that we are needed. So, please, please let us know if you are in need of care and prayer and we will be there. You do not have to wait for our system changes to call either Javier or me. Javier's email is ocampo@ascensionmd.org and mine is hildebrandnan@gmail.com. You can text Javier at 202-903-6428 and me at 202-277-5362.

We will keep you posted on my changes made in the next few months via our usual announcement methods.

May God Bless you and keep you and make his face to shine upon you.

Rev. Nan

The members of A Joyful Path will explore the meaning of being of service to others. I John 3:18 "Little children, let us love, not in word or speech, but in truth and action. Also the meaning of this Mexican proverb: "A good deed is the best prayer." Come and join us in Room 2 after the 9:00 a.m. service (10:15).

Lucia Pires is from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. She is a 500-hour Pranakriya Yoga School of Healing Arts certified yoga teacher. Her training focuses on cultivating and enhancing the relationship of the student with his or her life force through yoga postures, breath work and meditation, in order to create change in awareness and help the student move towards wholeness and greater aliveness. She completed her professional training in 2015.

Lucia is the mother of two boys, ages 14 and 10, and when they give her a little break she enjoys reading, writing, long walks in nature and dancing.

Facilities Committee Seeks Volunteers!

Have you ever built a house all by yourself? Neither have we. But we have lived in houses and apartments where things break and need repairs. If you have experience calling plumbers, electricians, roofers, etc., and meeting them when they come for estimates, you are just the kind of person we need for the facilities committee. While we welcome handy people who can fix a lock, drive a screw or change a light bulb, most of our duties consist of identifying projects, arranging for estimates and meeting prospective contractors. Perfect for retirees! The more of us there are, the less any one person has to do. If you are interested, contact one of the following: Ted Bedell, 301-520-8449; Luis Pedron, 301-922-5610; John Pruessner, 240-271-4739, or email Lin Keene at: office@ascensionmd.org
