

WELCOME TO CHURCH OF THE ASCENSION

Twenty Sixth Sunday after Pentecost: 18 November A.D. 2018

Prayer in the Modern Age

I have been thinking lately how similar prayer is to physical exercise. Does that sound too flippant or dismissive? I don't mean to be. Think about the similarities. Both prayer and exercise can be done in groups, or alone. Both are open to beginners through champions—and everyone in between. To get anything out of it, practitioners must have a certain degree of discipline, and more important, must persevere through dry spots where there is the inevitable question, “what am I doing this for?”

The number of times we hear prayer mentioned in public is quite amazing. We often say that we will pray for someone when we hear of some difficulty that they are having; we frequently hear public figures declare that they are offering “thoughts and prayers” to victims of violence; it's a cultural cliché to “pray for rain”- or the END of rain. But do we, in fact, pray? Indeed, how many of us can confidently say that we know how to pray? I've noticed that when I ask people to make a simple prayer, say, at the conclusion of a meeting, they will often have a look of panic and politely refuse. I think they are afraid that they will not have the “right words”, or will not express themselves in perfect Book of Common Prayer phraseology. Do you think God cares about this? I think He chuckles at the earnest and awkward attempts of people to sound like 19th Century poets.

Prayer (like exercise) can bring personal and metaphysical benefits. It is essentially a conversation with a God who knows and loves you, and is WAITING for you to ask for what you need. Remember that Matthew (and for that matter Mark, Luke and John, in very similar words) says, “Ask and you shall receive. Seek and you shall find. Knock and the door shall be opened.” This seems a very promising invitation. There is no hint of being obliged to do it in the “one right way”. In fact, multiple senses are involved: asking/speaking, seeking/looking, knocking/taking action. Sometimes, in our uncertainty about the words to use to speak with God, we fumble, lose concentration and end up dozing or thinking about something else. This is not a failure; one simply starts again. Perhaps using a different medium. As an example, I invite you to check out Ukuthula, an African prayer for peace, on You Tube. There are a dozen variations, all beautiful and heartfelt, singers begging God for peace with mind and body and voice. Similarly, people can feel and express God's love through dance, art and meditation. Don't let your childhood understanding of prayer limit your ability to communicate with the Lord, or to learn new and powerful expressions of joy.

Just as some form of exercise can be done at most times of day, and in many places, so is prayer unlimited by time and place. A prayer can be a momentary expression of thanksgiving at a new day, an hour's meditation on the coming of Jesus, an expression of gratitude at a family meal—there are no limits. In my mind though, there IS one rule: if you tell someone you will pray for him, you MUST do it.

Blessings,

Javier

Godly Play

Abraham and Sarah traveled away from their home, a land where people thought that gods were in each thing—such as the sky, in a river, or in a tree. The understanding that all of God might be everywhere sustained Abraham and Sarah as they finally made their way to Canaan, where Isaac was born.

In this lesson, nearly the same arching journey is taken by God's people, but this time in the opposite direction. Even though this journey is forced onto God's people, the same astounding discovery is made. God was not just in one place, in the temple in Jerusalem. God was also in a foreign and strange land. God's presence is not here or there but everywhere, waiting. To be found. To find us.

Wednesday Morning Book Group

Ascension's book group is discussing the book, "Sapiens: A Brief History of Humanity", by Yuval Noah Harari. This book explores the ways in which biology and history have defined us and enhanced our understanding of what it means to be "human". We meet weekly at 10:00 a.m. in Ascension's library on Wednesdays. There will be no meeting on the day before Thanksgiving. Please read Chapters 9 and 10 for Wednesday, November 28th.

Spanish Class (Canceled November 12)

Come and take part in Ascension's Spanish Class on Mondays from 6:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. at Ascension House. You don't need to know Spanish to come, because we get together to learn and/or practice. For more information contact Javier at ocampo@ascensionmd.org

Thursday Morning Yoga

Continuing the Collection of Items for ComfortCases

The inspiring sermon in September by Robert Scheer, founder of ComfortCases, has prompted many congregants to ask what more we can do to help this local non-profit organization bring dignity and hope to youth entering foster care. We will continue to have a bin in the narthex for collecting additional travel-sized toiletry items. Further information on ways to help the organization—from donating pajamas to helping pack comfort cases—can be found at www.comfortcases.org. The organization is housed at 15825 Shady Grove Road, Suite 60, Rockville, MD 20850; phone: 202-253-0402.

Sermon Series: Sharing your Faith in the 21st Century

For the season of Advent, our preachers will be presenting a sermon series on the "Call to Evangelism of the 21st Century". Each Sunday, we will address the topic of spreading the Gospel according to our Lord Jesus Christ within the context of the Advent Collects and Readings. We look forward to a dialogue about Episcopal Evangelism with you as the series progresses. The series starts Advent I on December 2nd and ends on Advent IV December 23rd. Parishioners may wish to read the readings for those Sundays in advance of the sermon series to prepare. They can be found on the internet on "The Lectionary Page" or, in advance in the Sunday Bulletins published on our website .

Blessings,

Javier and Nan

Blessing of the Cars

As we celebrate the beginning of the Christian year we pray that God be with us wherever we go. For that reason we will have the blessing of the cars on December 2 after the 12:00 pm services in the parking lot. If you want you can decorate your car with flowers.

Lady of Guadalupe Day

Join us on December 8 to celebrate the Lady of Guadalupe Day at 6:00 pm in the Main Church. After the service we will have a Mariachi Band to sing "Las Mañanitas" to the Virgin. If you want to experience more about the Latino Traditions, this would be a great opportunity to do it. After the service we would continue the celebration in the Undercroft with more Mariachi songs and Latin-American food.

Men's Shelter Lunch Program

The Men's Shelter Lunch program provides bagged lunches for homeless men, assembled in the Undercroft once a month. Supplies are donated by Ascension members. Depending on the season, we provide forty to eighty lunches a month. The next program is today at 9:30 a.m. Contact Edith at esekasi@gmail.com if you would like to help, or sign up at <http://bit.ly/>

Ministerio Felicidad

Ascension members prepare lunches and send love and prayers to day laborers in the neighborhood of the church. Join Javier at 6:00 a.m. on Saturday, November 24 in the church kitchen. If you have any questions, Contact Javier at ocampo@ascensionmd.org

Montgomery Hospice

Montgomery Hospice is a nonprofit hospice that has been serving the residents of Montgomery County for 36 years. We provide professional end-of-life care in homes, extended care facilities and at Casey House, our acute care facility. We are looking for new volunteers. Our greatest need is for volunteers to visit patients. These volunteers provide companionship for patients, respite for family members, lavender oil hand massages, music by the bedside or help with practical matters. Many provide the gift of "presence" by simply being with a patient. All volunteers go through an application process.
