

THIS WEEK AT ASCENSION

Thank You! ¡Gracias!

Although I am not a linguist, speaking two languages as I am now able to do, (Hooray!) I have come to appreciate some of the subtle differences in meaning that the same word can have in each language. In Spanish, "Gracias" retains a little of its Latin origins of 'pleasing', and 'God's grace'. In English, the origins are murkier, traced through Old English, Norse, Danish and Latin, but the word has origins in the verb "to think". Originally used in shops and offices, it meant "I will remember what you did for me." Do you feel the difference? One, so lovely and feeling; the other, so kind and thoughtful.

And now, I am the richer for an awareness of both. For I want to tell you THANK YOU!! And ¡¡GRACIAS!! with all of their direct meaning and subtle connotations! Thank all of you for your involvement, support, and pledges to the Church of the Ascension. I appreciate every single pledge you have made, no matter what amount it is for. I value all the helpful feedback you have offered on the priest-in-charge evaluation. I am deeply pleased about the signs of your commitment to Ascension—the speed with which members of the congregation step up to fill a need, or offer help on committees, or to each other. Together we are building and strengthening the kind of community we have said that we value. Thank you for your faith in the enterprise. Thank you for your physical and mental efforts to make it happen. Thank you for your contributions to watch it bloom.

And speaking of bloom, I'm sure you would like to know the progress of the Annual Giving campaign which will fund our efforts. I estimate that we are about two thirds there— a wonderful expression of optimism— but still short of our actual needs. If you have not already pledged, today would be an excellent day to fill in the forms. The Welcome Team can provide you with a packet. Once you have pledged, I believe you will feel the happiness that others in the congregation have described when they made a conscious decision to put fear and doubt aside in order to honor God, and support their church and each other.

In today's Gospel we read about the poor widow and how she gave all she had. What a wonderful example she has given us! If you donate or contribute weekly and have this commitment with God, you can help us better by changing your donation to a pledge. This way you can help us to have a better idea how we can budget and how many activities we can plan for 2019.

Thank You! | Gracias!

Blessings,

Javier

Continuing the Collection of Items for ComfortCases

The inspiring sermon in September by Robert Scheer, founder of ComfortCases, has prompted many congregants to ask what more we can do to help this local non-profit organization bring dignity and hope to youth entering foster care. We will continue to have a bin in the narthex for collecting additional travel-sized toiletry items. Further information on ways to help the organization—from donating pajamas to helping pack comfort cases—can be found at www.comfortcases.org. The organization is housed at 15825 Shady Grove Road, Suite 60, Rockville, MD 20850; phone: 202-253-0402.

LIFE LONG LEARNING

Wednesday Morning Book Group

Ascension's book group is discussing the book, "Sapiens: A Brief History of Humanity", by Yuval Noah Harari. We meet weekly at 10:00 a.m. in Ascension's library on Wednesdays. All are welcome to join us. Please read Chapters 7 and 8 for this coming Wednesday.

Tai Chi

Tai Chi class is at 4:00 p.m. on Thursday afternoons in the Chapel; a good time of peace and balance in a lovely place. Please come and join us. Tai Chi will be cancelled any Thursday that schools are closed for bad weather this winter. Contact Claire Rosser at 301.275.0617 or Cjrosser@aol.com if you have any questions.

Thursday Morning Yoga Class

Yoga classes are offered on Thursdays at 10:00 AM in the Chapel, taught by Lucia Pires. The class is multilevel, with an emphasis on gentle yoga, and is appropriate for beginners. Props are offered, but the students are encouraged to bring their own yoga mats.

Lucia Pires is from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. She is a 500-hour Pranakriya Yoga School of Healing Arts certified yoga teacher. Her training focuses on cultivating and enhancing the relationship of the student with his or her lifeforce through yoga postures, breath work and meditation, in order to create change in awareness and help the student move towards wholeness and greater aliveness. She completed her professional training in 2015.

Lucia is the mother of two boys, ages 14 and 10, and when they give her a little break she enjoys reading, writing, long walks in nature and dancing.

LIFE AT ASCENSION

Servant Keeper—We see the Change

Thank you for updating your information and becoming familiar with Ascension's database, Servant Keeper. We can see the changes you've made to your addresses, phone numbers, and email addresses; we can also see that some of you have uploaded pictures of yourselves. This is amazing. Let me encourage you to continue to spread the word to others on how easy it is to get into the database and navigate it. I'm sure you've discovered how to see your contributions and print statements as needed. I hope you have found this to be a valuable tool and continue finding yourself entering the portal.

If you have not had the opportunity to log into Servant Keeper or are having difficulties logging in, please let me know.

If I can be of any assistance, please feel free to contact me at office@ascensionmd.org or stop by the office.

Godly Play

This week in Godly Play we will study a number of the prophets from the Old Testament. Much has changed since creation. The People of God have been freed from slavery, ruled their own country, been defeated, carried off into exile, and returned to rebuild the temple and Jerusalem. God had been with them all the way--but they had not always been with God. The prophets' job was to show the people, the king and the priests when they turned away from God. We learn that prophets still exist today and continue to help all of us know the true way to live.

A Joyful Path

A Joyful Path—10:00 a.m.

The members of A Joyful Path will make discoveries about Vietnamese Peace Activist Thich Nhat Hanh. He believed sharing his beliefs in practicing inner peace and mindfulness would bring peace to others and the world. Come join us in Room 2 during the 10 a.m. service.

A Joyful Path—12:00 p.m.

Escuela Dominical Para Nin@s. The members of A Joyful Path at noon will learn about the most important source of our tradition- The Bible. We will learn about some sayings which are biblical and others attributed to the Bible which are not. Come join us at 12:00 pm. (noon) in Room 2.

CARING FOR OUR COMMUNITY

Montgomery Hospice

Montgomery Hospice is a nonprofit hospice that has been serving the residents of Montgomery County for 36 years. We provide professional end-of-life care in homes, extended care facilities and at Casey House, our acute care facility. We are looking for new volunteers. Our greatest need is for volunteers to visit patients. These volunteers provide companionship for patients, respite for family members, lavender oil hand massages, music by the bedside or help with practical matters. Many provide the gift of "presence" by simply being with a patient. All volunteers go through an application process and a three-day training.

For more information, call 301-921-4400 or visit www.montgomeryhospice.org/volunteer
