

"We are ambassadors who represent Christ." – 2 Corinthians 5:20

THIS WEEK AT ASCENSION

We Don't just Go to Church - We ARE the Church!

Next Sunday, September 9, we will be holding the Annual Ministries Fair. Have you ever attended this event? It's quite a lot of fun, in a low-key, family style sort of way. Let me describe what we're trying to do this year.

Immediately after the 8am and 10am services, you will find everyone heading for the undercroft. Inside the large space, representatives from many of the volunteer activities that exist at Ascension will be standing at tables, talking to friends and parishioners about those activities. If there are openings on committees or gaps in the rosters of interest groups, they will seek volunteers to join them. This is NOT a Fortune 500 presentation at a major convention center—thank heavens! This is an informal, brief informational occasion. You will be able to mingle and learn during the coffee hour, and you won't be burdened with slick, four-color brochures. It is a chance for all of us to recognize and celebrate the selfless spirit in people who want to do two vital things: get really important work done, and build durable connections and friendships among parishioners. And realistically, this is a chance, after you see all that is being done, for you to choose to join in, too. There will be sign in sheets for each of these activities.

As I describe the Ministries Fair, I am reminded that as a PK (preacher's kid) there were ALWAYS duties to be done for our family and the church. As we grew and became stronger and more competent, the duties were more serious and difficult. But at least there were always options among the activities, and what we got out of it was the certain knowledge that we were important to the family and the church. And of course we had family parties occasionally to recognize the work and the workers! Fun is important, too!!

Historically, Ascension has focused primarily on the efforts of standing committees of the vestry. Certainly that covers a great deal of the volunteer effort that occurs at Ascension, but I have noticed that there are other efforts, some short term, or problem specific, that parishioners have willingly applied themselves to. I'm thinking here of the work of Gardening Day, when our campus had become overgrown, or the wonderful fundraising efforts of the yard sale, car wash, and bake sale enthusiasts who have helped raise funds for things that Ascension really needed. DO you think that we should include efforts like these in the future? I will be present at the Ministry Fair, and would very much like to hear what you have to say.

One last thing—have you been noticing the efforts of the Hospitality Angels? They faithfully start up the coffee and tea service, arrange for treats, and see that the space is cleaned up afterward. They make an effort to include all people—parishioners and newcomers alike, so that conversation is easy and no one is left out. This fills me with joy and hope about the essential goodness of our people and their manifest love of God and each other. Please join us next week if you possibly can. I hear that there will be a few Special Treats, maybe even some of the peach coffee cake that I have twice been too slow getting downstairs to have any of!!

HEADLINERS

Yard Sale & Car Wash - September 08

Second Annual Summer Yard Sale and Car Wash on Saturday, September, 2018 from 7:00 a.m. to 3:00 p.m. If you have furniture or clothes that you want to donate, bring them to the office. Remember that you can bring your car to be washed. We also need help. If you are available, you are welcome to join us! For more information, please contact Javier at ocampo@ascensionmd.org or 202-903-6426 or Ascension Office.

Bake Sale with Yard Sale

We are now going to have a Bake Sale along with the Yard Sale on Saturday, September 8. The Bake Sale will be from 9:00 a.m. to 2:00 p.m. This gives you only a few days to get out your favorite recipes to bake for our Ascension Bake Sale.

You can bring your baked goods on Friday afternoon or evening to the church office, or bring them to the Ascension House. Fe Wlotzko will be at the church setting up at 8:30 am on Saturday, so you can bring your Bake Sale items any time after that.

Also, if you would like to help out with the bake sale for a couple of hours, please call Fe Wlotzko at 301 948-2026 or email her at fewlot@aol.com.

Fill the Bin for Comfort Case

Ascension's Youth Group has been supporting the important work of a local non-profit organization—Comfort Cases, that provides services to children as they head into foster care. We are collecting the Comfort Cases leading the 10 a.m. service on September 9, 2018. If you bring supplies to donate, a bin is still available at Narthex.

ATTENTION WORSHIP LEADERS:

Chalicians, readers, acolytes, healing prayer ministers, ushers, hospitality angels, flower deliverers: It's time to start looking for any black-out dates you may have for October, November and December. I will be starting the roster for the next quarter shortly and if I know in advance that you won't be available on specific dates, I won't schedule you for those dates. That's so much easier than your having to find a sub! Email me any "not available" dates you may know of at sari.stoddard@verizon.net. Blessings on all of you, and thank you for offering your help to our worship. Thanks in advance,

Sari

Bishop's Visit and One Ascension Sunday

Bishop Mariann Edgar Budde spends much of her time out and about in the congregations of the diocese. In addition, she makes an official visitation to each of the diocese's 88 congregations once every three years. These visits occur on Sunday mornings, and the schedule is typically announced each summer. In years in which the bishop does not visit, a member of her senior staff visits instead. This year she will come to Ascension on Sunday September 30th, since it is also One Ascension Sunday we will have just one service at 10:00 a.m. After the service we will have a potluck. Please sign up if you want to bring any food or drink.

Backpack Drive Big Success

I would like to thank everyone for their support of the backpack drive. Your donations of supplies and financial support enabled us to provide 55 backpacks for the Linkages to Learning program at Summit Hall E.S. in Gaithersburg. This is the largest number of backpacks we have provided since 2015. Thank you to those who helped to stuff the backpacks. I really appreciate your support of this project and I am sure that the children appreciate the backpacks. Thank you again! Kristen Keating

Ministry Fair

Leaders and participants of parish ministry teams will be available to chat Sunday, September 9 from 8:00a.m. to 10:00a.m. in the Undercroft. The program year begins on Sunday, September 16. All formation classes will meet at 10:00a.m. Service.

Fiesta de las Americas

LIFE LONG LEARNING

Summer Sunday School

Children and Families are welcome! We are offering Summer Sunday School, in room 4 (also called the "Place of Peace", during the 10:00 service. Similar to the Families with Young Children Service, we sing, have a simple lesson, pray and play and then go to church for communion. Parents may come to Sunday school with their little ones or leave their children to us while they enjoy the church service. Over the past few weeks we have seen some beautiful interactions between older and younger children. Come hang out with us sometime! Questions? text or call: Megan Didavi 703-626-7199

Wednesday Morning Book Group

Our group is discussing the book, "Take This Bread: A Radical Conversion," by Sara Miles. This book presents the story of its author's journey to faith and how she took Jesus' call to feed others by establishing food pantries. Our group meets on Wednesday mornings at 10:00 a.m. in Ascension's library. All are welcome to participate. Please read chapters 11, 12, and 13 for this coming Wednesday.

Tai Chi

Starting from September 6th, Tai Chi classes will resume at 4:00 p.m. on Thursday afternoons in the Chapel; a good time of peace and balance in a lovely place. Please come and join us. Tai Chi will be cancelled any Thursday that schools are closed for bad weather this winter. Contact Claire Rosser at 301.275.0617 or Cjrosser@aol.com if you have any questions.

Thursday Morning Yoga

Yoga classes are offered on Thursdays at 10:00 AM, taught by Lucia Pires. The class is multilevel, with an emphasis on gentle yoga, and is appropriate for beginners. Props are offered, but the students are encouraged to bring their own yoga mats.

Lucia Pires is from Rio de Janeiro, Brazil. She is a 500-hour Pranakriya Yoga School of Healing Arts certified yoga teacher. Her training focuses on cultivating and enhancing the relationship of the student with his or her lifeforce through yoga postures, breath work and meditation, in order to create change in awareness and help the student move towards wholeness and greater aliveness. She completed her professional training in 2015.

Lucia is the mother of two boys, ages 14 and 10, and when they give her a little break she enjoys reading, writing, long walks in nature and dancing.

Yoga class Classes will resume in the Chapel on September 6, 2018

CARING FOR OUR COMMUNITY

Montgomery Hospice

Montgomery Hospice is a nonprofit hospice that has been serving the residents of Montgomery County for 36 years. We provide professional end-of-life care in homes, extended care facilities and at Casey House, our acute care facility. We are looking for new volunteers. Our greatest need is for volunteers to visit patients. These volunteers provide companionship for patients, respite for family members, lavender oil hand massages, music by the bedside or help with practical matters. Many provide the gift of “presence” by simply being with a patient. All volunteers go through an application process and a three-day training.

For more information, call 301-921-4400 or visit www.montgomeryhospice.org/volunteer
